Consent

I give permission for the young flyer to travel unaccompanied.

I understand that weather or other events may, in rare instances, necessitate an aircraft diversion and/or overnight stay at or away from the point of departure/destination. Some airline taxi and hotel providers require formal, written consent in order for young flyers to use their services and/or stay unaccompanied in the hotel.

I hereby confirm that I give permission to the young flyer travelling by taxi unaccompanied and to stay in a hotel room unaccompanied. If the rule of the taxi provider or hotel provider requires that the young flyer is accompanied, I give my consent to the young flyer being accompanied by an employee or representative of the airline. The airline may contact local law enforcement and/or child protection authorities to assist.

Academic Families has educational guardianship responsibility for the young flyer during their UK education and is authorised to manage their travel arrangements.

Academic Families UK contact for travel related queries.
